

Children in Wales
Plant yng Nghymru

Wales Centre for Health
Canolfan Iechyd Cymru

The 2nd Injury Prevention Conference for the UK and Ireland

PARALLEL SESSION PRESENTATIONS

Thursday 24th September – Parallel session A: 13.55pm – 15.25pm

Session	Presenting Author	Organisation	Title of Presentation	Theme
Location: PRINCE OF WALES 1
Chair: Dr Sarah Jones, National Public Health Service for Wales
A1	Dr Declan Bedford	Health Service Executive, Ireland	Alcohol in fatal road crash deaths in Ireland 2003 to 2005.
A1	Dr Nicola Christie	University of Surrey, England	Understanding road traffic injury and deprivation: a systems approach.
A1	Dr Richard Kimberlee	University of the West of England, Bristol	'Road Safety – a fresh approach'; forty years on. Looking at the new challenges confronting traditional practice.
A1	Dr Sarah Jones	National Public Health Service for Wales	Should graduated driver licensing be introduced in the UK?
Location: PRINCE OF WALES 2				Burden of Injury
Chair: Professor Ronan Lyons, Swansea University, Wales
A2	Dr Belinda Gabbe	Monash University, Australia	Using population-based trauma registries to monitor long term outcomes after injury.
A2	Judith Slaney	University of Surrey, England	Understanding individuals' experiences of injury - The Burden of Injury.
A2	Professor Ronan Lyons	Swansea University, Wales	The UK Burden of Injuries Study.
Location: FOX HUNTER (1st Floor)				Prevention of Self Harm
Chair: Professor Keith Lloyd, Swansea University, Wales
A3	Professor Keith Lloyd	Swansea University, Wales	Prevention of suicide and self harm in Wales.
A3	Professor Helen Snooks	Swansea University, Wales	Tackling fatal substance misuse: gaining a picture of 999 calls for non-fatal poisoning.
A3	Angela Evans	Swansea University, Wales	How can we prevent overdoses and what works? A systematic review of interventions for non fatal poisonings
A3	Phil Jones	Swansea University, Wales	The geography of suicide: knowledge construction through geovisualisation

Friday 25th September – Parallel Session B: 11.15am – 12.30pm

Session	Presenting Author	Organisation	Title of Presentation	Theme
Location: FOX HUNTER (1st Floor) Chair: Samantha Turner, Swansea University, Wales				Home Safety
B1	Samantha Turner	Swansea University, Wales	Developing methods to improve the effectiveness and efficiency of the Fire and Rescue Services' (FRS) Home Fire Safety Checks (HFSCs)
B1	Nohaid Ilyais	University of Nottingham, England	Home Safety Education and Provision of Safety Equipment for Injury Prevention: an update.
B1	Professor Ceri Phillips	Swansea University, Wales	Reducing bath water temperature to reduce risk of bath scalds: is it cost effective and who pays?
B1	Tricia Spacey and Samantha Pairman	Fife Community Safety Partnership, Scotland	Fife Cares – a multi agency approach to promoting home safety and security
Location: PRINCE OF WALES 2 Chair: Heather Ward, University College London, England				Injury Data and Methodology
B2	Professor Denise Kendrick	University of Nottingham, England	Modelling cost-effectiveness of home injury prevention strategies for children
B2	Henry Edwards	Centre for Public Health, Liverpool John Moores University, England	The TIIG Injury Surveillance System in the North West Region
B2	Mr Steven Macey	Swansea University, Wales	Assessing the medical costs of injury using linked, anonymised, datasets
B2	Heather Ward	University College London, England	Evaluating how injury data could be improved – feasibility report and hospital based pilot study
Location: PRINCE OF WALES 1 Chair: Professor Ronan Lyons, Swansea University, Wales				Road Safety
B3	Dr Kamel Mansi	University of West of England	Risk Factors Influencing Children Involvement in Road Accidents
B3	Rachel Owen	University Of Nottingham, Division of Primary Care, England	Systematic Review of the effectiveness of non-legislative interventions for the promotion of cycle helmet wearing by children. Update.
B3	Dr Karen Pfeffer	University of Lincoln, England	Using a driving simulator to evaluate a road safety education programme for young drivers
B3	Professor Ronan Lyons	Swansea University, Wales	The Advocacy in Action Study.

Friday 25th September – Parallel Session C: 14.15am – 15.15pm

Session	Presenting Author	Organisation	Title of Presentation / Seminar	Theme
Location: FOX HUNTER (1st Floor) Chair: Graham Kirkwood, University of Edinburgh, Scotland				Sports Injury Prevention
C1	Graham Kirkwood	Centre for International Public Health Policy, University of Edinburgh, Scotland	Sport related injury in children and adolescents in the UK, what do we know?
C1	Dr Alistair Nicol	Scottish Government	A Pilot Study of Rugby Union Injuries In Scottish Schools
C1	Nikesh Parekh	Centre for International Public Health Policy, University of Edinburgh, Scotland	Is the Risk of Injury in Schoolboy Rugby too high? A New Perspective for Schools, Parents and Pupils
Location: PRINCE OF WALES 2 Chair: Karen Hughes, Liverpool John Moores University, England				Violence Prevention
C2	Dr Sarah Jones	National Public Health Service for Wales	Deprivation and youth violence – comparing cities with nearby towns
C2	Roy Maxwell	South West Public Health Observatory, England	Hospital admissions involving a knife, or other sharp instrument, 2003 to 2009, England.
C2	Karen Hughes	Centre for Public Health, Liverpool John Moores University, England	Evaluating the use of polycarbonate glass in pubs and clubs in preventing serious harm caused through injury and violence
Location: PRINCE OF WALES 1 Chair: Dr Julie Mytton, NHS Bristol / University of the West of England, Bristol				Child & Adolescent Injury Prevention
C3	Carole Hewison	Whoops Child Safety Project, England	BABY EXPRESS. Improving early relationships: a randomised controlled trial of an age-paced parenting newsletter
C3	Dr Julie Mytton	NHS Bristol / University of the West of England, Bristol	Family risk factors for injuries in UK primary school aged children
C3	Joanne Banfield	Sunnybrook Health Sciences Centre	P.A.R.T.Y. (Prevent Alcohol and Risk-Related Trauma in Youth) Program 10 Year Outcome Study
C3	Ian Evans & Karen Saunders	Child Accident Prevention Trust, England	Child Accident Prevention in the West Midland
Location: ST DAVIDS (1st Floor) Chair: Karen McFarlane, Children in Wales				Changing Attitudes
C4	Tamsin Rose	European Public Health Alliance	How to engage local policy makers

